MARYLAND AGC & AGC of AMERICA GENERAL CONTRACTOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership Categories - General Contractors

Regular Member: Any individual, partnership or corporation engaged in business as a General Contractor for two or more years prior to application for membership that has established a reputation for skill, integrity and responsibility. A General Contractor is defined as a construction firm capable of undertaking work as a prime contractor, including construction management, either agency or at risk, with overall responsibility for the satisfactory completion of a project. Regular members are entitled to vote, hold Board and elective office, and receive all of the benefits of Maryland AGC and national membership.

Non-Home Member: Same qualifications and benefits as a Regular Member, except a Non-Home Member is already a member of another AGC Chapter.

Provisional (New) Member: Same qualifications as a Regular Member, except a person or firm qualified to be a Regular Member may be granted status as a Provisional Member during the first two years of membership in Maryland AGC. A Provisional Member may receive all publications, attend meetings, and purchase goods at member rates from AGC of America, but cannot vote or hold office. Previous Regular and Non-Home Members may not become Provisional Members.

Dues Schedule

General Contractors:

Regular members: $530 + $.00027 * last year's annual volume in Maryland (excluding Montgomery & Prince George's Cos.). Dues are capped at $8,000. For CM agency work (not at risk), please use your fees received plus reimburseables as your annual volume.

Non-Home members: 37.5% of regular member dues.

Provisional members: 1st year of membership = 50% of regular dues; 2nd year of membership = 75%.

Note: Members who also contribute to the Construction Industry Advancement Program receive a rebate of their C.I.A.P. contribution, up to 70% of their Maryland AGC dues.

If you are applying as a Non-Home Member, please provide the location of your principal office and the name of the AGC Chapter to which you belong:
