Bring your appetites and your questions regarding H1N1; Avian Bird Flu; SARS or anything else related to pandemic incidents. Julie and Tim will talk to you about prevention, appropriate hygiene and sanitation; preparing yourself so that your company can continue to operate should a pandemic illness strike your workforce.

Julie L. Evarts, RN, MSN, CRNP,

EHD Employee Benefits Department Health Management Coordinator. Julie's focus within EHD is Integrated Health Management; working to improve employee health and wellness in both the occupational and non-occupational aspects of their lives. She works directly with EHD clients and their employees with the goal of improving overall health and wellness. This is done by increasing awareness, assessing company culture, and most importantly, education. The ultimate reward for the company is multi-faceted: and an improvement in their total cost of risk, happier and healthier employees and improved productivity. Julie received her Bachelor's of Nursing (BSN) from Niagara University and Masters of Science (MSN) and Nurse Practitioner certification (CRNP) from the University of Pennsylvania, School of Nursing.

Tim Carnevale, ARM, AIM, AIC, AIS, CLCS

Commercial Account Executive with the York office of EHD. Tim serves all types of business industries but focuses on construction and manufacturing industry clients. Tim helps his clients to successfully manage their insurance and risk control programs. Tim received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration [BSBA] degree from Shippensburg University majoring in Finance with a concentration in Accounting. He spent 11 years as a Property/Auto/Liability claims representative before changing to the brokerage side of the insurance profession. Tim is currently working on obtaining the CRIS designation [Construction Risk and Insurance Specialist].
